LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM

April's Program Chairman, Don Varnadoe, introduced Dianne Cason, Glynn Academy's senior advisor for the class of 1994. Representing Glynn Academy were 23 outstanding leaders of the future. Each student was presented with a certificate of merit. These students were selected by the faculty and staff to represent the 260 members of the senior class, based upon their contributions in the areas of athletics, leadership in school government, community service projects, academic achievement, and musical talent. These students expressed appreciation for and gratitude to parents, siblings, teachers, and the community for their successes and the prospect of a bright future. These students will be attending Notre Dame, University of Georgia, West Point, Emory University, Georgia Tech, Hampden-Sydney, Georgia Southern and Brunswick College. They are:

Joshua Akers
Matthew Ball
Danielle Boys
Heather Brown
