Section(s)	Obituary
Byline

George Everett Millican, 74, of St. Simons Island passed away Friday, April 29, 2011, at his residence in Hampton Plantation.

A memorial service will be at 4 p.m. Friday, May 6, 2011, at Frederica Presbyterian Church, St. Simons Island, with the Rev. Andy Chambers officiating.

Born March 9, 1937, in Atlanta to the late G. Everett and Beatrice Jones Millican, Everett was a lifelong residence of Atlanta and Marietta prior to moving to the Golden Isles in 2000.

He graduated from Grady High School in Atlanta and attended Emory, UGA and finished at Georgia State University, where he earned a bachelor degree in business. Despite all that, he was an avid Tech football fan. He was a life member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity and was self employed in several businesses, ending with a career in property and casualty insurance.

His passion was playing golf and all activities surrounding the sport. He was very involved with the Bellsouth Classic, a PGA tour stop at the Atlanta Country Club before its move to Sugarloaf in Duluth. Everett served on many committees from the very first tournament and served as General Chairman in 1993 and 1994. He also chaired the first TPC tournament played at Atlanta Country Club in 1974, prior to its move to Jacksonville and the Women's Amateur in 1971. Everett was a past president of Ansley Golf Club, The Atlanta Classic Foundation, and the Atlanta Country Club. Upon his move to St. Simons, he was a member of The Hampton Club and its Men's Golf Association.

Mr. Millican was an active member of Frederica Presbyterian Church, where he served as treasurer and a member of the choir. He was also a member of the Rotary Club of St. Simons Island.

Everett is survived by his wife of 50 years, Patricia Harris Millican; daughter, Susan, and her husband, Mark Papanicolaou; granddaughters, Alex and Paige Papanicolaou of Bogart; daughter-in-law, Tina Freeman Millican and step-grandson Konrad Schmidt of Bishop; sister Elizabeth Robinson of Kennesaw; niece, Milli Robinson of Woodstock; nephews, Robie Robinson (Stacy) of Lilburn, Buddy (Tracy) Cowan of Douglasville and Mark (Connie) Cowan of Fort Worth, Texas. He was preceded in death by his son, G. E. "Chip" Millican of Bishop and sister Emily Claire Cowan of Aiken, S.C. A memorial service will be held later in the month in Atlanta.

Memorial contributions may be made to Frederica Presbyterian Church or Hospice of the Golden Isles.

Edo Miller and Sons Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
