

Wilfred Turbeville

- 8 hrs ago

It is with great sadness that the family of Wilfred “Bill” Turbeville, announces his passing on Saturday, Dec. 30, 2017, at the age of 96 years. His wife Patricia preceded him in passing in 2016. Bill will be lovingly remembered by his children, Robert, Michael, Polly and Scott; his 11 grandchildren; and his great-grandson, Jack Turbeville.

Bill was an ardent member of the St. Simons Island Rotary Club and the United Methodist Church. During his younger days, he had a number of local golfing companions from the St. Simons area.

Bill was born in Turbeville, S.C., on Nov. 15, 1921, as the second youngest of four sisters and two brothers, all whom preceded him in death. He worked his way through Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Tenn., playing the trombone and the violin. He became a chemical engineer and spent his entire career with ALCOA in both Cleveland and Pittsburgh. After he retired from ALCOA, he consulted for the company in both Japan and China.

The funeral service will be held at 11 a.m. Jan. 6, 2018, at St. Simons Island United Methodist Church on Ocean Boulevard.
