

Sue Taylor

Sue Wells Taylor of St. Simons Island, Ga., passed away peacefully at home on Feb. 18.. She had been diagnosed with Alzheimer's disease several years before.

Sue Wells was born on March 16, 1936, in Cuthbert, Ga., where her father, Samuel Alonso Wells, was Superintendent of Schools for Randolph County. The family moved to Decatur, Ga., where Sue graduated from Decatur High School in 1954. Along with her twin brother Sam Wells, she entered Emory University in the second female class on a special scholarship awarded to twins. Sue was president of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority and graduated with a degree in early childhood education.

She married Clyde Afton Taylor III of Brunswick, Ga., in 1958 and the couple moved to Milwaukee, Wis. The family moved several times as the children were growing up, and after they left home, the couple returned to Atlanta. Sue served as executive vice president of Eastern Manufacturing, the family-owned business. An active former member of Westminster Presbyterian Church in Atlanta, she was president of Women in the Church, and a leader of the women's Bible study.

The couple retired to St. Simons Island, where Sue, a life-long avid reader, was active in the Friends of the Library and organized the Tables of Content fundraisers. Sue was also active in the Golden Isles Presbyterian Church, where she again served as president of Women in the Church for several years. Sue and Clyde took classes in ballroom dancing for most of their married life and enjoyed dancing waltz, tango and swing at every opportunity, but especially at the Jekyll Island Club.

Sue will be remembered for her deep faith, sense of humor, keen intellect, practical wisdom, and love for friends and family.

Sue Wells Taylor is survived by husband of 62 years, Clyde; her twin brother, Sam A. Wells Jr. M.D.; sister, Elizabeth Wells; children, Martha Greenway (Mike), Josephine Ann Taylor (Mauricio Milazzo) and Clyde Taylor IV; and grandchildren, Alexandra and Forrest Greenway and Lorenzo Milazzo Taylor.

A family burial will be held at 1 p.m. on Feb. 25 at Arlington Memorial Park Cemetery, in Sandy Springs, Ga.

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day - and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing." 2 Timothy 4:7-8.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Hospice of the Golden Isles, or Golden Isles Presbyterian Church.

Edo Miller and Sons Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements. You may sign the register book and leave condolences for the family at www.edomillerandsons.com.
